

Intention to proceed to a Development Deed – Works

Form 'B' is to be lodged with South East Water if the formal Development Deed is unable to be executed by all parties within 3 months from the issuing date of the Deed Schedules to avoid lapsing.

The lodgment of Form 'B' does not waive the requirement for the Development Deed to be formally executed by all parties within 6 months from the issuing of the Deed Schedules. If execution does not occur within 6 months a new application will be required.

Note: Should New Customer Contributions be paid more than 3 months from the issue date as shown in Schedule 3, Development Deed, New Customer Contributions will be calculated at the current rates at the time of payment.

Important: Do not commence construction works prior to the formal Development Deed being fully executed by all relevant parties.
